Pariksha Pe Charcha 2.0:

About Webinar:

In the second edition of Pariksha Pe Charcha, Prime Minister Modi interacted with students, teachers and parents at New Delhi's Tal Katora Stadium. During the event, a mother told the PM that her son was good in studies but now he is spending a lot of time on mobile. To this, the PM Modi replied "PODS Wala Hai Kya?", after hearing this the crowd burst into laughter.

Prime Minister then emphasized on the proper use of technology and said that technology should be for the expansion of mind. Prime Minister Narendra Modi interacted with more than 2000 people which included students, teachers and parents at New Delhi's Tal Katora Stadium. The program was live telecasted at Facebook page and YouTube Channel of HRD Ministry (i.e., www.facebook.co/HRDMinistry and www.youtube.com/user/HRDMinistry) and also at ww.webcast.nic.in/mhrd. This time students from across the country and outside country participated in the event.

Objectives of Webinar:

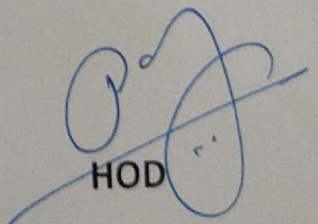

- To discuss stress-free examination.
- The session started after the Union HRD Ministry released the book 'Exam Warriors' authored by the PM focusing to help them cope with the stress.
- The book is a compilation of his thoughts on the matter and anecdotes from his life.

Students benefited: SE, TE and BE students of Computer and EXTC engineering

Number of Students: 30

Outcome of Webinar: Selected participants will have an opportunity to attend an interaction with Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The best responses will be featured in Prime Minister Narendra Modi's interactive session with students, official notification states.
